

A Tour of First World War Sites in Marlow, 30 July 2017

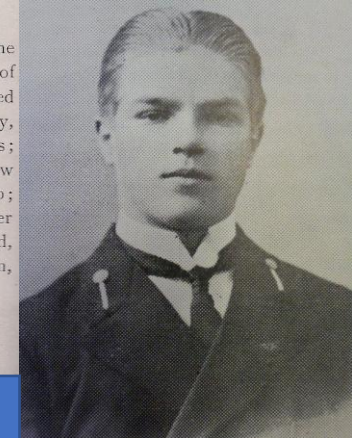

Charles Frohman and Pauline Chase

Dr. J. D. Dickson, J.P.

Dickson.—JOHN DUNBAR DICKSON, M.D., J.P., The Gables, Marlow; son of the late Henry Heron Dickson, of Lansdown Road, Dublin; born at Belfast, in 1853; educated at Warrington Grammar School, and Queen's University, Ireland; M.D., L.R.C.S.I. Justice of the Peace for Bucks; Medical Officer of Health for Wycombe Rural and Marlow Urban Districts; commenced practice in Marlow in 1880; has always taken a keen interest in educational and other schemes for the general improvement of the town. Married, in 1885, Emily Margaret, daughter of the late David Carson, of Glasgow, and has issue four sons.

Dr J Dickson and Midshipman David Dickson

Brewery munitions workers 1918

2nd Lt Basil Horsfall VC

General Higginson

Troops arriving in Marlow, July 3rd 1915

A Tour of First World War Sites in Marlow

30 July 2017

- The Causeway
- Institute Road
- Wethered's Brewery
- Sir William Borlase's School
- Gyldenscroft
- Oxford Road

